

(STUDENT CARD

WEEK 3: Righteousness that Comes by Faith)

How do my beliefs affect my actions? Or how does faith become righteousness? In the boxes below think of some actions that would result from the beliefs presented (3 false and 3 true).

FALSE BELIEFS	ACTIONS
I am invincible.
I know everything.
I matter more than anyone else.

TRUE BELIEFS	ACTIONS
Only God's standard is perfect and only God is perfect
Righteousness comes only through faith by grace.
God wants me to live righteously according to his Word.

What is ONE THING that you can do through God's power that is righteous (bonus points if it's a command from the Bible)?

What is THE ONE WAY that you can become righteous in God's eyes? What do you need to do to do this?

Who is SOMEONE IN YOUR LIFE that exemplifies righteousness? What questions would you ask that person?

(STUDENT CARD

WEEK 3: Righteousness that Comes by Faith)

How do my beliefs affect my actions? Or how does faith become righteousness? In the boxes below think of some actions that would result from the beliefs presented (3 false and 3 true).

FALSE BELIEFS	ACTIONS
I am invincible.
I know everything.
I matter more than anyone else.

TRUE BELIEFS	ACTIONS
Only God's standard is perfect and only God is perfect
Righteousness comes only through faith by grace.
God wants me to live righteously according to his Word.

What is ONE THING that you can do through God's power that is righteous (bonus points if it's a command from the Bible)?

What is THE ONE WAY that you can become righteous in God's eyes? What do you need to do to do this?

Who is SOMEONE IN YOUR LIFE that exemplifies righteousness? What questions would you ask that person?